

COURSES

FOR ADULTS:

'Level 4 Certificate in Anti-Bullying Mentoring of Young People'.

This course is for individual teachers and practitioners. It is accredited to Level 4 equivalence by NCFE and is offered by BIG Award and Paradigm Campbell Associates.

It offers a comprehensive understanding of how to prevent bullying in your school or service and outlines ways to respond when cases occur.

Work at your own pace and achieve a qualification that goes with you throughout your career. Learn the latest in practice and be up to date on policy requirements.

Understanding Cyberbullying

The first of its kind, this course is CPD accredited and offers you insights into the complex world of cyberbullying and helping young people stay safe online.

It is provided online in modules, with videos and downloads, with a file of tools you can keep for use in your own work.

Modules include:

Behaviour, crowds and anonymity

What young people tell us

What is good practice? Law, Policy, Recording

Cases from real life analysed, Serious incidents

Handling disclosure sensitively, Providing appropriate support;

Staff training needs & more.

'Understanding Cyberbullying'. A distance learning course worth 20 CPD hours, 'Understanding Cyberbullying' is an in-depth course on this cutting edge issue. It is offered for BIG Award by Youthworks Consulting, an accredited CPD provider. MORE

Peer Mentoring

FOR YOUNG PEOPLE

A unique course for young people to gain recognition for their work as Peer Mentors.

'Level 2 Certificate in Peer

Mentoring.' Give your students a qualification in recognition of their peer mentoring work! The first course of its kind, this course has been written by BIG Award and is offered with Paradigm Campbell under their Investors in Quality Licence from the national awarding body NCFE.

Please email to receive your information pack or download it here.